

光と色で世界を変える。

DIGITAL ART LIGHT COLOR SYMPOSIUM

The 1st Color Digital Art x Lighting Symposium

Shibaura Institute of Technology, Color and Communication Design Laboratory is pleased to host this symposium which is designed to be the incubator of future designers and engineers with some roundtable discussions on digital art and lighting.

A networking meeting with soft drinks and light meal will follow in the 3rd floor lounge after the symposium.

Time & Date: 3:30-5:00pm, Saturday, 16 March, 2019 / 5:00-6:30pm Networking meeting
Venue: Room 307, Shibaura Campus, Shibaura Institute of Technology
3-9-14 Shibaura, Minato-ku, Tokyo 108-8548 Japan (3 min. from East Exit of JR Tamachi Station)

Registration fee: 2,000 yen (the fee is collected at the site)

Invited speakers: Mr. Joe Nattapol Suphawong (Photographer, Interactive Designer / Assumption University, Thailand)
Mr. Jun Kosaka (Graphic and Space Designer / Waseda University and Kuwasawa Design School, Japan)

Student presentation: ShibaLab

Moderator: Kyoko Hidaka, Ph.D. (Color Theorist, Graphic Designer / Shibaura Institute of Technology, Japan)

Language: English

Collaboration with ShibaLab and NEXUS

Supported by the COLOR SCIENCE ASSOCIATION OF JAPAN

Hosted by Shibaura Institute of Technology and Assumption University

